

Book Title: The Boy and the Donkey

Author: Carol Barnett

Publisher: Oxford University Press

Synopsis / Summary:

This book is about a boy. The donkeys always went to the forest in the morning and came back home at night. One day, one donkey wanted to stay in the forest. The boy was angry! Many animals tried to help him but it did not work! In the end, a smart bee made the donkey move and the donkey immediately ran to the boy's home.

Personal Reflection:

After reading 'The Boy and the Donkey', I like the bee the most because all animals like rabbit, wolf and fox cannot make the donkey move. Only the bee uses a smart trick to make the donkey run home quickly. I also learn a lesson – You must think twice before you act.
