

Book Title: Jacob Nickel

Author: Lynda Mills

Publisher: Harcourt Achieve

Synopsis / Summary:

This story is about a little street sleeper named Jacob. He was an orphan. One day, he discovered some robbers robbed a jewellery shop. Jacob helped the police to catch the robbers. Finally, Jacob moved to a big new house.

Personal Reflection:

I think Jacob is brave because he does not feel frightened when the robbers are robbing the shop. Most people will be afraid when they see robbers, but Jacob keeps calm and collects evidence in time of danger! When I read the part talking about Jacob sleeping on the street, I feel upset. Everyone should have a warm family, but Jacob cannot have it! Luckily, after he helps the police, a policewoman helps him to find a warm family. I think the policewoman is kind because she helps Jacob to find a family to take care of him. Also, when the policewoman finds Jacob, Jacob is hungry and she gives food to him. I am happy about the ending of the story. It is a happy ending. Jacob can find a home. I love stories with happy endings. I will feel upset when I read a story with a sad ending.
