Hiru was a man who married an American and lived in America. He had a daughter called Ikemi. Hiru did not let his daughter date with her American boyfriend Max because he thought they were of different races.

One day, Hiru went for fishing because he was a fisherman. He enjoyed fishing in his boat Elizabeth, which was named after his dead wife. That day, he caught so many fish. He did not want to stop and go home. Unfortunately, there was a hurricane approaching him. He got lost and could not ask anyone for help for three days.

Ikemi was worried about her dad since her dad had been missing. Ikemi asked Max for help. Max found an old airplane and they got on the airplane to find Hiru.

Unluckily, they found Hiru. He was in danger. It was quite dangerous to save him from the sea near the hurricane. Later, they could save Hiru successfully. Hiru was grateful that Max had saved him. In the end, Hiru thought Max was a good guy and he allowed his daughter to date with Max.

I could not stop reading until I finished the story. This story was so exciting and amazing and you would never know what would happen to Hiru. I wonder what I would do if my family has not gone home because of a hurricane. That is a challenging question. There were only few dangerous hurricanes in Hong Kong. But will you risk your life to save your family when there is a hurricane? I won't even if my family may not return home safely, like Ikemi's father. Ikemi is very different from me as she decided to save her father from danger when there was a hurricane. I think she is a role model for me.
