

Wong Shiu Chi Secondary School

Geography Pre-S1 summer vacation assignment (2026-27)

Instructions:

- 1. Attempt all exercises. Write your answers with a blue or black ball pen.*
- 2. Submit this assignment to teacher in the first Geography lesson*

Name: _____

Class: S1 ()

(Picture source: Destinationwakefield)

How much have you learned from Unit 1 – 3 about the different land uses of Hong Kong? Test how much you know by trying the crossword puzzle with the clues given on p.2.

[illegible]

Vertical:

1. Government buildings like hospitals belong to this type of land use.
2. This type of land use is made up of built-up areas.
3. Urban areas have higher population _____ than rural areas.
4. It can be found in green areas like parks and gardens.
5. It is the opposite of urban.
6. The squatter areas in Hong Kong are located at the _____ of urban areas.
7. Farmlands and fish _____ are examples of rural land uses.
8. By this, residential areas can be divided into three types.
9. CBD have higher _____ of traffic and people than other areas.
10. A characteristic of most buildings in Central Business Districts.
11. Initial letters of the organization which carries out urban renewal in Hong Kong. (Answer not from textbook)
12. A tool that we use to show location of things. You can find many in your textbook.

Horizontal:

- A. The land use where people live. For example, housing estate.
- B. Tai Po Centre and Uptown Plaza are examples of _____ housing estate.
- C. The name of squatter area in Rio de Janeiro.
- D. Because _____ areas in Hong Kong have poor living environment and face the risk of fire, most of them have been cleared by Government.
- E. A common problem in the squatter areas of Rio de Janeiro.
- F. The other name of Rio de Janeiro.
- G. An area of high-technology industry in Hong Kong Island.
- H. It is very high in the Central.
- I. Many offices of this profession are found in Central Business Districts.
- J. A sport you can do in some recreational land uses.
- K. A large shopping mall next to Kwun Tong MTR Station. Read Google Map!

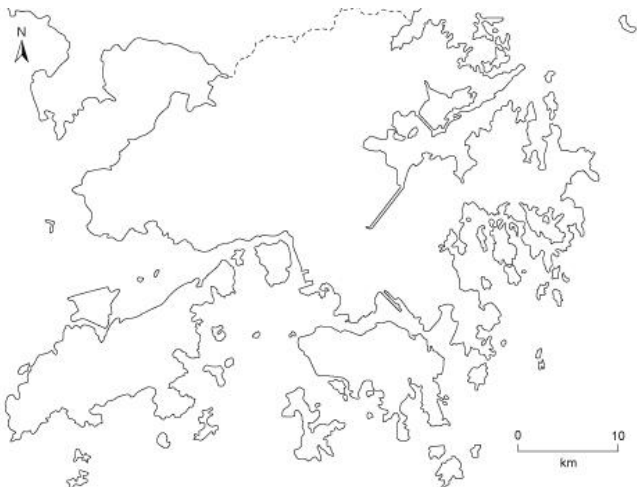

I know
..

B. KNOWING COMMAND WORDS

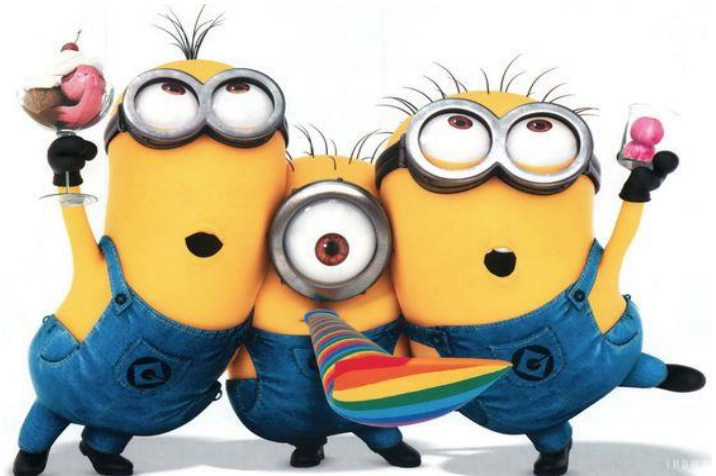

You should have learned command words and the ways to answer geography questions in Summer Bridging Programme. Answer the following questions to test how well you can do. Let's go!

Command word	What should you do?	Question & Answer
Name / Identify	- Write the name of something - No need to write complete sentence	Q. Name two examples of industrial land use. A. _____ _____
State	- Give a short answer - No need to explain	Q. State two problems of living in squatter areas. A. _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Complete	Find the missing items	Q. Complete the following statement about industries in Hong Kong. A. The government has built the _____ Park in Sha Tin and the _____ in Pok Fu Lam to support the development of high-technology industry.

Command word	What should you do?	Question & Answer
Explain	• Give reasons or causes • Usually, a detailed answer is needed	Q. Explain why some industrial areas are built close to residential areas. A. _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Suggest	• Give ideas	Q. Suggest two examples of professionals who set up offices in the CBD. A. _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Mark	• Show the location of a place in a map	Q. In the outline map of Hong Kong below, mark the location of the Central(中環) with a ★.

Command word	What should you do?	Question & Answer
Describe	• Give the details of something • No need to give reasons	Q. Read the photos on p.20–21 of Textbook. Describe two characteristics (特徴) of a Central Business District. A. _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Compare	• Tell similarities and/or differences between two things • Should compare different aspects one by one	Q. Read Figure 2.2 on p.10–11 of Textbook. Compare the buildings in Tsuen Wan and Sham Shui Po. A. In terms of height, the buildings in Tsuen Wan are _____ than those in Sham Shui Po. In terms of age, the buildings in _____ _____ _____ _____ _____

Keep learning!
Successful people
learn every day!

(Picture source: Playbuzz)