NUMBERS	4	4	4	4	4	4

3. School Curriculum

The school commits to encourage students to develop the ability of “learning to learn” and to educate them such that they are prepared for their studies in universities and other tertiary institutions.

Secondary 1 students in 2024/2025 are required to study the following subjects:

Subjects	Medium of Instruction
English, Mathematics, Integrated Science, Computer Literacy, Citizenship, Economics and Society, Geography, History, Design and Technology, Home Economics	English
Chinese, Chinese History, Biblical Knowledge, Putonghua, Physical Education, Visual Arts, Music	Chinese

To facilitate our Secondary 1 students’ smooth transition to an English learning environment, S1 English Bridging Programme is organized for them before their new school year. Cross-curriculum Project Studies have been implemented in junior forms. Junior form students can decide their area of study with their teacher advisors according to their interests. This can develop generic skills for learning among students and lay a good foundation for senior curriculum.

In senior forms, students are required to study 4 core subjects including English, Chinese, Mathematics and Citizenship and Social Development, and to take 3 out of 11 elective subjects including Chinese Literature, Chinese History, Economics, Geography, History, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Information & Communication Technology, Business, Accounting & Financial Studies and Visual Arts. Other than the above subjects, students can study Mathematics Extended Part (Module 1 or 2), Applied Learning, Other Language (Japanese Language) and other electives offered by the Network Schools in Tai Po.
